Montgomery, Alabama

Dear Senator Hill:

Thank you for your letter of 1 November enclosing application forms from [redacted]

We shall be very glad to consider their applications with particular reference to possibilities for their service overseas. They would be required, however, to serve initially in Washington, D. C., even if appropriate openings were anticipated at an overseas location, and our first consideration will focus on vacancies at our headquarters which might lead to service abroad. We have written to the [redacted] to advise them that their applications are being reviewed and enclose copies of these letters for your files.

Your interest in bringing the [redacted] to my attention is appreciated and we shall advise you of our final determination regarding their applications.

Sincerely,

CONCUR:

STAT

We have received your Form 57 from Senator Lister Hill with a letter noting your interest in employment with us.

Since you have indicated special interest in serving overseas, we wish to advise you now that we do not recruit for direct assignment abroad and our first consideration of your application will be for headquarters' vacancies, located in Washington, D. C., which might later offer opportunity for service abroad.

We are glad to know of your interest and shall give your application careful consideration. You will hear further from us as soon as we have completed a preliminary review of your application.

Sincerely,

E. D. Nichols
Director of Personnel
